At the June Session 1927 Mr. V. Gundappa asked in incidental asked for a copy of the Civil list which he was told in reply that a copy would be given. Mr N. G. Sanjivaiah then asked if a copy of the Civil list would be furnished only to the party members of the House or to all members of the Legis Council. When the Dewan was pleased to say that he too may have it if he wanted. It is doubtful if this remark can be construed as a promise to supply copies of Civil lists to all members of the Legislature.

No orders in this connection have so far issued from the
